ORDER

It is ordered by the Fiscal Court that only 3 days hauling on the roads will be paid for in the year 1916, except where authorized by the County Judge.

Copy Attest:

S. F. BOWMAN, C.R.C.O.

Sheriff Cam Mullins has added several special deputies for fair week and the best of order is guaranteed. The fellow who has an extra supply of white lightning had better leave part of it at home, for Hotel Winstead will certainly be in readiness for all offenders of the law.

The Broadhead Fair is making special preparation to make the time spent with them more pleasant for its many visitors.

Their entire Grove of five acres will be reserved this year for the pleasure of those who like nice shade and a good place to picnic.

All shows and concessions will be in the centre field. A Special park for automobiles will be added.

NOTICE:— Fair week there will be a show at the Booneway Opera house every night. All feature plays.

Bring your BOOSTER TICKETS to the Mt. Vernon Fair next week. Somebody gets a Ford.

Clearance Hayes was over from Conway yesterday and says they are coming to the Mt. Vernon Fair from that section.

Mrs. Cecelia Hamlin mother of townsman A. H. Hamlin died yesterday. Her remains will be buried at Mareburg today.

W. M. Poynter has made additions to his residence and store house which adds greatly to the appearance of his already well kept and valuable property.

T. J. Pennington has bought D. G. Preece's property on West Main and in the deal Mr. Price gets Mr. Pennington's lot adjoining W. L. Richards. We understand that Mr. Price will hold on this lot.

Every stockholder of the Mt. Vernon Fair Association is requested to keep a sharp lookout for the boys who try to get in over the fence during the Fair next week. When you catch them climbing over take the agent to the Ticket Office and see that they buy a ticket.

An order was entered in the Fayette Circuit Court this morning authorizing Receiver Richard J. Colbert to collect unpaid stock subscriptions to the Kentucky Rural Credit Association and to dispose of mortgage notes belonging to the association at par with accrued interest. Of these $17,000 are in 6 per cent five year notes, and $100,000 and over are in 5 per cent, twenty year notes. These notes, according to President R. A. McDowell, are abundantly secured and a ready market for them is expected.

CHESNUTT-KUSTE

On Sunday afternoon July 9, Miss Matilda Kuster and I. B. Chesnutt were married at the home of the bride in Redford, Michigan. The ceremony, which was simple but impressive, was witnessed by a few close friends and relatives. The happy couple left immediately after the wedding for Niagara Falls and other points where they will spend a pleasant honeymoon.

The bride was a student of the Normal Department three years ago and has since been assistant matron at the College Boarding Hall. She was one of our most popular students and young faculty members.

The groom was also a student for several years. Since leaving Berea, he has been employed by the Government in agricultural work in West Va. The Citizen joins their many friends in wishing the young and happy couple a long and prosperous life.—Berea Citizen.—Mr. Chesnutt is a Rockcastle boy who by sticking close to his work and specializing in Agriculture has made good. His many friends in this county extend congratulations.

Mt. Vernon Fair Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Get your Shirts, Collars, Ties and other fixings for the Fairs at Fish's.

If you want to see everybody come to the MT. VERNON FAIR next week.

Roberts United Shows with 200 people will be on the Midway at the Broadhead Fair.

The girls canning club will give a demonstration in canning each day of Mt. Vernon and Broadhead Fairs.

The Mt. Vernon Fair Association and Mt. Vernon Booster Club will give away a new 5 Passenger Ford car at the Mt. Vernon Fair next week.

The Roberts United Shows, the Carnival which is booked for the Mt. Vernon Fair, state that they are on the way here. These shows will run every night during the Fair.

Those who have not seen the triplet boys of Mr. & Mrs. Joe Bolin of the Orlando section of this county will have an opportunity to see these three fine boys at the Mt. Vernon Fair next week.

Report indicates that there will be forty or fifty wagon loads of people coming to the Mt. Vernon Fair next Thursday competing for the $10.00 offered for the biggest wagon load brought in.

J. Lewis Cooper will be the ticket agent at the Mt. Vernon Fair the first day, Oscar and Emmitt Bryant the second day and F. L. Thompson Jr. assisted by V. C. Tate will sell the last day.

Sheriff Mullins has already deputized a number of competent Special Deputies for the Mount Vernon Fair. A few good men who know their business is better than a field full that do not know it in a case like this.

The Mt. Vernon Fair Grounds were put in good shape Wednesday. The road is fine leading from the pike around to the entrance and as soon as the pike gets rolled down this week every thing will be ready for the three big days.

Miss Myrtle Bryant and Mrs. John Harp will have charge of the Floral Hall at the Mt. Vernon Fair next week. Miss Bryant will list the entries and Mrs. Harp will look after the display. The Floral Hall has been enlarged and there is plenty of room now for everything.

There will be a mass meeting at the court house tonight for the purpose of trying to perfect plans for carrying into effect the improvements of Elmwood cemetery. All who are interested and every citizen in Mt. Vernon should be, are invited and urged to be present at 8 o'clock at Court house.

The Mt. Vernon Fair Association takes this means of correcting a mistake made in printing the advertisement of the Mt. Vernon Telephone Co. on page 30 of the 1916 catalogue. The terms are given as $2 for Business and Professional and $1 for Residence. It should read $2 Business and professional and $1.25 for Residence. Please remember correction when reading this ad.
